

The marginal-JS noise floor of a perfect sampler is explained by finite-sample estimator bias

(a) Floor vs. sample size and the χ^2 prediction

(b) $\hat{JS}^2$ is linear in $1/N + 1/M$ with slope $\propto B$

